Applicants acknowledge receipt of Examiner's Reasons for Allowance. Applicants accept such allowance and issuance without prejudice as being a limitation of any type to the claims, their scope, or the invention as disclosed in the patent application in general or any subsequent applications filed therefrom. Applicants respectfully disagree with the Examiner's characterization of the art set forth in the Reasons for Allowance and also set forth that the claims as written speak for themselves and include other novel and non-obvious features, as well as those set forth by the Examiner, which separately or in combination with features cited by the Examiner make them patentable and allowable as well.
